Leg & Frame finishings

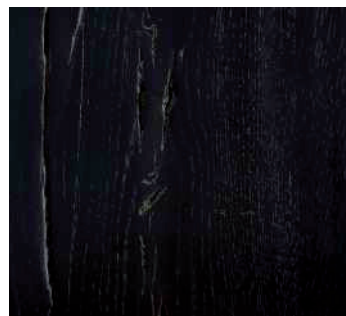

Metal, Ash and Wooden Legs

Steel stands as one of the most commonly used metals in the world across industries. New developments changed the nature of steel and allowed producers to create specialized items. The robust metal can easily be combined with warm materials like wood, using soft finishing techniques for a vigorous finishing touch. The hands of our craftsmen incorporate different types of steel and metal in the products we make.

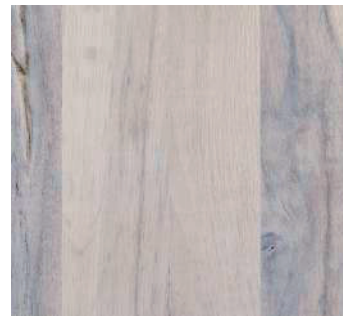

We have a few chairs with ash frames, for these frames you can choose five different ash wooden colours:

Graphite

For Beech & Ash

Seven different colours are available for all wooden chair legs:

These are our finishings for the wooden tables.

1. Silverback can only be achieved on Oak BC. The finish is achieved by a carefully monitored process, where certain chemicals in the wood react with special blend of stains. As a result, every item with this finish will be a unique piece of art.
